The world's leading trade event for process, drinking and waste water

AQUA
TECH
AMSTERDAM

PROMOTE YOUR PRESENCE

As show organisers we invite water professionals from all around the world. People you know as a client or a potential client, but also people you want to get to know: potential clients and partners.

Make sure your stand is busy

Visitors are drawn to bustling stands. Research shows that 76% of visitors feel busier stands offer greater value. The vibrant atmosphere signifies relevance and popularity.

Send out your invitations ASAP

Invite your clients and potential clients to your stand. It will help you identify solid leads and boost new business.

Let everybody now you are there

Announce your presence at the Aquatech Amsterdam in your email signature, on social media, emails, website etc. You can find free tools in the exhibitor portal.

WE INVITE WATER PROFESSIONALS TO AQUATECH MAKE SURE THEY VISIT YOUR STAND!

Make an impact with paid promotion

Purchasing a promotional package can optimize your trade show experience, helping you maximize exposure, engagement, and the potential to convert leads into long-lasting business relationships.

We have composed three standard packages for your convenience, but there are many more options that we would be happy to discuss with you.

Do give us a call and we can find the promotional tools that best fit your needs.

NEWSLETTER BANNER

An eye-catching banner in the Aquatech e-newsletter is the perfect way to capture the attention of your audience. This is an effective way to share knowledge and present your company's message, brand or product before and after the event.

TOTEM

A simple way of attracting the visitor's attention on their way to the entrance is placing signs with your brand name in front of the complex and near the entrance. This will ensure that your brand makes a clear impression as visitors make their way to and from the event.
